What were the Fund costs for the past year?

(based on a hypothetical $10,000 investment)

Class Name	Costs of a $10,000 investment	Costs paid as a percentage of a $10,000 investment
Class A	$156.00	1.45%

How did the Fund perform during the period and what affected its performance?

The Fund’s Class A shares underperformed the MSCI Emerging Markets Net Total Return USD Index (the “Index”) during the 12-month period ended September 30, 2025.

During the period, emerging market equity securities posted solid returns, largely producing results in line with their developed world counterparts.

On a sector basis, security selection and an overweight positioning allocation to consumer staples, as well as security selection and underweight positioning allocation to communication services, detracted from performance relative to the Index. Positive contributors to performance relative to the Index included stock selection within the consumer discretionary and industrials sectors.

On a geographic basis, stock selection in Korea as well as stock selection and an underweight positioning allocation to India, bolstered performance relative to the Index, while weaker stock selection in China and Mexico negatively contributed to performance relative to the Index.

How did the Fund perform over the past 10 years?

The line graph below reflects a hypothetical $10,000 investment and assumes the deduction of the maximum sales charge associated with that investment. The returns shown in the line graph and table assume the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, but do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on distributions or the redemption of Fund shares.
